

Useful Links to Oregon Agencies

Oregon Bureau of Labor & Industries

Look here for guidance on Oregon's employment, labor and civil rights laws. This includes information about apprenticeship programs, labor contractor licenses, Oregon family leave, prevailing wages and more.

Higher Education Coordinating Commission

Look here for information about higher education and workforce training. This includes information on Future Ready Oregon, licensing and financing of post-secondary institutions, workforce investments and programs supporting workforce development.

Oregon Employment Department

Look here for information about workforce recruitment, labor market information, payroll taxes, paid family medical leave, Oregon family leave and unemployment insurance.

Oregon Secretary of State

Look here for information about registering a new business, registering as a nonprofit and small business assistance. This includes access to the Office of Small Business Assistance, an independent office whose purpose is to advocate for and assist small businesses.

Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services

Look here for information about business regulations, workplace health and safety rules, workers' compensation, return to work programs and the Workers' Benefit Fund.

Oregon Occupational Safety and Health

Look here for workplace health and safety training, consultative assistance related to health and safety and to report and injury or fatality.

Criminal Justice Information Services

Look here for information about criminal history background checks. CJIS is a division of the Oregon State Police.

Oregon Department of Revenue

Look here for information about taxes. This includes information about the corporate activity tax, corporate excise and income taxes, pass-through entity tax and more.

Business Oregon

Look here for assistance with business grant opportunities, loans, loan insurance and government contracting.